OLD TIME BOOZE MAN CAUGHT

Federal Officers, Led By "Our Jim" Kelley, Make Seizure Friday Night on Burnham Hill in Woodbury

Two men, one of whom has long been wanted by officials who guard the Canadian border, and a quantity of intoxicants were seized by Federal Agents James H. Kelley of this village and Holmes and Crosby near the top of Burnham Hill in Woodbury Friday night.

The officers chose a strategic point for halting the car and the occupants quietly submitted to arrest. The car contained 114 quarts of Canadian beer and a case of gin.

In the car were Leonard Trayhan of Pawtucket, R. I., and Arsene Mady, who gave his residence as Farnham, P. Q., and who is said by officials to be engaged in illicit traffic across the border.

The prisoners were taken to Montpelier and at a hearing before United States Commissioner H. C. Shurtleff were held in bonds of $500 each, which they were unable to furnish. They were placed in Montpelier jail to await a hearing.

It is expected that Trayhan will be charged with importing an alien into the United States and Immigration Inspector John C. Ford of Newport has been summoned to attend the trial.

It is alleged that Mady was in the car which escaped from the officers at Irasburg recently. Shots were fired at the car, but its occupants got away.

The car seized bore the Rhode Island number 558.

She asked all to stand and give a minute of silent prayer in memory of those who have entered into rest, singing "Nearer, My God, to Thee." Each past president was asked to give a one minute talk, speaking of her own work or that of some other that had been helpful to them.

Mina Foss gave a minute talk and at the close presented Annie Wallace, our president this year, a gold pin with W. R. C. badge attached, a gift from the past presidents.
